Independence of the proposed board members

According to the Swedish Corporate Governance Code (the “Code”), a majority of the members of the board of directors elected by the general meeting are to be independent of the company and its senior management. At least two of the members of the board of directors who are independent of the company and its senior management are also to be independent in relation to the company's major shareholders.

The nomination committee is of the opinion that the proposed composition of the board of directors fulfils the requirements of the Code.

A summary of the nomination committee's assessment of the proposed board members' independence of the company, its executive management and its major shareholders is presented in the table below.

Name	Position	Independence of the company and its senior management	Independence of the company's major shareholders
Per Harkjaer	Chairman of the board and the remuneration committee	Yes	Yes
Michael Parker	Board member	Yes	Yes
Karsten Slotte	Board member	Yes	Yes
Heléne Vibbleus	Board member and chair of the audit committee	Yes	Yes
Öystein Engebretsen	Board member	Yes	No
Gunilla Aschan	Board member	Yes	Yes*
Vincent Carton	Board member	No	Yes*

* The nomination committee notes that Gunilla Aschan is a member of the board of directors of Lantmännen that has a significant shareholding in the company that does not meet the 10% threshold for being considered a major shareholder. Furthermore, the nomination committee notes that Vincent Carton has a significant shareholding in the company through Carton Group that does not meet the 10% threshold for being considered a major shareholder.
